Program Summary

“Team Up” is a program developed by Seeker Springs which helps pre-teens increase life skills such as decision-making, communication, leadership, self-responsibility, social skills and self-esteem. “Team Up” was successfully piloted at two Ouachita Parish schools in 2010 - 2011 via funding provided by the Living Well Foundation. Seeker Springs seeks to provide the “Team Up” program at I.A. Lewis School in Lincoln Parish where 68% of the 6th grade students receive reduced or free lunches. Students identified by the I.A. Lewis principal and teachers as having behavioral and emotional issues, or social skill difficulties would be eligible “Team Up” participants. “Team Up” would be conducted on-site at I.A. Lewis and consist of two (2) seven (7) week sessions of adolescent group counseling, followed by weekend multifamily group sessions on the campus of Seeker Springs in Eros, LA.

Proposal Objective (Year #1)

1. To provide 2 7-week sessions of counseling on site at I.A. Lewis Elementary for at least 80 participants; the I.A. Lewis Team Up Program will be a part of an overall program that includes 10 therapy groups that will serve a total of 152 students in 4 different schools (in Lincoln, Union & Ouachita Parish).
2. To have a weekend multi-family group session.
3. To begin expansion of the program to other schools in the area.
4. To contract with an outside evaluator to research results from the group.

“Team-Up” Program Goals (Year #2):

1. To provide two (2) eight (8) week sessions of adolescent group counseling on site at I.E. Lewis for at least 24 participants. Portable Ropes Challenge Course equipment is utilized at the school facility.
2. To conduct weekend multifamily group sessions on the campus of Seeker Springs following the group counseling sessions. Real ropes course is utilized at the campus.
